If a disruption of telephonic or internet-based service occurs during this meeting and prevents or materially impairs members of the public from observing the meeting or offering public comment through the telephonic or internet-based option provided by the District, the District will suspend further action on agenda items and recess the open session for the period required by District policy and applicable law. The District will make good faith efforts to restore public access. The District may not reconvene the open session until public access is restored or until one hour has elapsed after the disruption began, whichever occurs earlier. If the District reconvenes before public access is restored, the District Board must first adopt required findings by roll call vote in accordance with District policy and applicable law.
